

Vascular Anaesthesia Society of Great Britain and Ireland

Fourteenth Annual Scientific Meeting
Thursday 9th and Friday 10th September
London Zoo, Regent's Park London

Programme includes:

Abdominal Aortic Aneurysms

Professor Robert Sayers: Finding aneurysms:
the impact of screening for AAAs.

Dr David Laws: To operate or not?

Dr. Alastair Nimmo: Intraoperative Management of AAA

Lessons from Everest

Dr Mike Grocott: Understanding hypoxia in critical illness

Dr. Daniel Martin: Update on Caudwell Extreme Everest

Improving perioperative outcome in vascular surgery

Professor Hans Priebe: Perioperative management of vascular surgical patients in 2010

Comparative Physiology

Dr. Barrie Higgs: Two legs good- four legs better

Pro-con Debate:

This house believes CPEX will replace preoperative cardiological assessment

For: Dr. Richard Struthers

Against: Dr. Darrel Francis

The Future of Vascular Services

Professor George Hamilton: Does vascular surgery need to be centralised?

Dr. Andrew Platts: Developments in vascular radiology

How to do it session

Dr. Mark Stoneham, Dr. Simon Baker, Dr. Jonathan Thompson & Dr Jeremy Langton

- Local or general anaesthesia for carotid surgery
- Minimising renal impairment in vascular surgery
- Pain relief after amputation

Workshops

1: Point of Care Coagulation monitoring

2: Cardiopulmonary exercise testing

Spaces are limited and early booking is recommended.

Registration: Before July 31st 2010: Members £ 295.00 & Trainees £245.00

Non members & registration from August 1st 2010: £325.00

Conference dinner in the Prince Albert Suite, London Zoo, £50.00

includes free pre-dinner cocktails in the "Gorilla Kingdom" and Jazz band

Hotel accommodation is not included but can be booked via our website

For registration and more details go to www.vasgbi.com